EXPERTISE

Brett Buchwald represents buyers and sellers in medical office investments. He works closely with his clients and employs a proactive approach to ensure a smooth transaction process, from initial listing through due diligence and closing.

In his advisory role with clients, he assesses their long-term requirements, providing a customized solution that includes leasing and development services in addition to investment sales.

Prior to joining Ackerman & Co., Brett was a broker in Marcus & Millichap's National Office and Industrial Properties Group with a focus on office investment sales.
