EXPERTISE

With more than 30 years of commercial real estate expertise, Kelly Wilson specializes in landlord leasing as a senior vice president for Ackerman Retail.

In a career that combines experience in retail leasing, hospitality and restaurant franchising, Kelly has worked on both the tenant and landlord/development sides of the retail sector, giving her a unique insight into the art of dealmaking.

Kelly joined Ackerman Retail from The Windsor Realty Group, where she specialized in tenant representation for local, regional and national tenants. Prior to that, she was a senior leasing manager at Lennar Commercial, where she directed the third-party leasing of a 3-million-square-foot portfolio of Class A lifestyle and power centers, including The Avenue lifestyle centers in East Cobb, West Cobb and Peachtree City in Georgia, and Viera in Florida.

She was instrumental in launching the Tanger Outlets in Pooler, Ga., in her role as senior vice president of leasing at Ben Carter Enterprises. As director of retail leasing at Thomas Enterprises, she managed leasing for 2 million square feet of lifestyle and power centers across the U.S.

In her prior roles in the retail and restaurant sectors, Kelly was also a franchise sales director for Raving Brands (Moe's Southwest Grill, Doc Green's, Shane's Rib Shack, Monkey Joe's, Flying Biscuit Cafe and Mama Fu's Asian House) and a retail leasing representative for Paradise Development Group with a focus on leasing Publix grocery-anchored centers.
