

Rodney Goodwin

Associate, Brokerage

770.913.3952

rgoodwin@ackermanco.net

EXPERTISE

As a brokerage associate in the Tenant Advisory Group, Rodney's primary focus is assisting clients – including independently-owned businesses, professional service firms, tech firms and medical practices – find ideal space for their businesses. In this advisory role, Rodney works across all phases of commercial real estate, from research and business development to transaction facilitation.

Rodney has cultivated valuable relationships and continuously expands his knowledge and business networks, enabling him to better serve his clients. He is committed to providing innovative solutions while leveraging the full-service Ackerman & Co. platform on behalf of his clients.

Rodney works closely with Senior Vice President Delmont "Del" Early III, senior advisor in the Tenant Advisory Group, who possesses more than a decade of experience producing customized solutions for clients.

Prior to joining Ackerman & Co., Rodney completed commercial real estate internships focused on acquisitions and development. While attending the College of Charleston School of Business, Rodney served on the Executive Board of The College of Charleston Real Estate Club as treasurer, vice president and president.

EDUCATION/PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Bachelor of Science, Business Administration (BSA) from the College of Charleston School of Business

Licensed Real Estate Broker, State of South Carolina

Licensed Real Estate Broker, State of Georgia

Member, Urban Land Institute

Member, Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors

Member, Buckhead Business Association

Member, College of Charleston Alumni Club, Atlanta chapter